

The darker nights at Pitton Cross and Rhossili make an ideal spot for star gazing! This photograph was taken by Dan Santillo of Rhossili Beach. There are many ship wrecks along the Gower Coast including The Helvetia which was carrying wood and hit a sandbank in 1887 and lies partially visible on Rhossili Beach. In Port Eynon there is a memorial to RNLI lifeboat "Janet" which capsized twice in bad weather off Pwll-du head in 01/01/1916 whilst attempting a rescue of the SS Dunvegan and three of the crew lost their lives.

Welcome to Pitton Cross Caravan and Camping Park

We are a small family run park. First opened in the 1960's. The campsite is only a mile from Rhossili Village and its beach, which is often, voted "The Best Beach in the UK".

There is a large car park, a Pub, a couple of Cafes and National Trust Shop. In St Mary's Church there is a memorial to Edgar Evans who was born in the village and went to the South Pole with Scott. The City of Swansea is only 16 miles away where you will find the National Water Front Museum.

The scenic coastline is within walking distance from your pitch. Rams Grove Cove is good for rock pooling. Mewslade and Fall Bay for body boarding, buckets and spades and climbing. Rhossili Beach for climbing, surfing, walking.
